

Benefit Fashion Exhibit Attracts Large Audience

New Century Club Stages Show for General Hospital; Old Wedding Gowns Displayed

CARBONDALE, May 2.—Before a capacity attendance in the Carbondale High school auditorium this evening, a fashion show sponsored by the New Century club of this city was presented. Well known persons of the upper valley acted as models for the clothes displayed by merchants of Carbondale and Jermyn.

A striking scene was the "Gay Nineties," presented by Mrs. James H. Paul, Mrs. S. Tuner Foster, Mrs. N. H. Hiller, and Mrs. S. F. Carpenter. Those taking part are: Mrs. John H. Burke, Mrs. W. H. Ahlers, Mrs. Morgan Patten, Mrs. Everett Reese, Mrs. Harold Tiffany, Mrs. Raymond Tiffany, Mrs. George Brandow, Miss Jane Butler, Miss Marion Reese, Miss Hester Foster, Miss Dorothy Judge, Miss Helen Felts, Miss Elizabeth Mills, Miss Catherine Jehu, Miss Dorothy Burr, Miss Jane Moore, Miss Claire Wellbrock, Miss Natalie Fulkerston, Miss Dorothy Blackburn, and Miss Nancy Fulkerston. The Flora Dora sextet participated in this scene.

Miss Eleanor Jones was mistress of ceremonies and introduced the many models. A Colonial scene was presented by Mrs. Manville, Mrs. G. B. Samson, Mrs. S. F. Carpenter, Mrs. R. A. Jadwin, Mrs. Preston Lambert, and the Misses Dorothy Lambert, Hester Foster, Joan Willbrock, Zelda McMullen and Hildreth Monroe.

The final scene was a bridal party and in this were shown stylish wedding gowns of 1846 to 1933. A gown of 1846 owned by Mrs. Loomis was worn by Margaret Louis Russell. Fifty-six prizes, donated by local merchants, were distributed as door awards. Proceeds will be given to the General hospital. Frank Samson, pianist, and Newell Townsend's orchestra furnished music.

JERMYN ^{Day 2 volume} 9/1/53 4-H Roundup Listed Thursday

A sectional roundup of Jermyn and Mayfield 4-H Clubs will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Community House.

Club members are asked to bring skirts, jumpers or dresses and record card. First-year girls are requested to bring sewed-on buttons and third-year girls a darned sock.

Mothers of the girls are invited to attend and see the work accomplished during the Summer months. A fashion show will be held and lunch served.

Mesdames Janet Miller, Albert Winter, Edward Muelhausen, John Horhutz and John Shust have been instrumental in supervision of the courses during the past few months.

↑ Eleanor Jones

[Emma]

← "a gown of 1846 owned by Mrs. A. Loomis was worn by Margaret Louis Russell"

The gown was probably the one worn by Laura biswas when she married Hiram P. Loomis on 05-20-1846.